Dedication

Because he was always there with a word of advice and a helping hand; and

Because he gave munificently both of his time and labor to our class activities; and

Because his smile, his gentle encouragement kept our morale high at all times; and

Because we are, in reality, his first graduating class, the first he has seen through five years,

We dedicate this, the 1952 Key, to our principal

Willard A. Sabin

The Class of '52

WILLARD A. SABIN

Mr. Sabin was born in Locke, New York. He attended school near Manlius, later in Los Angeles, and then in Westbury, New York. He received his high school education in Red Creek, New York. Then, he attended Oswego Normal School, Syracuse University, the University of Rochester, and Columbia University.

From 1925 through 1934, Mr. Sabin taught mathematics at Jefferson High School. He was principal of Francis Parker School No. 23 from 1934 until 1938 when he came to Franklin as Vice-principal.

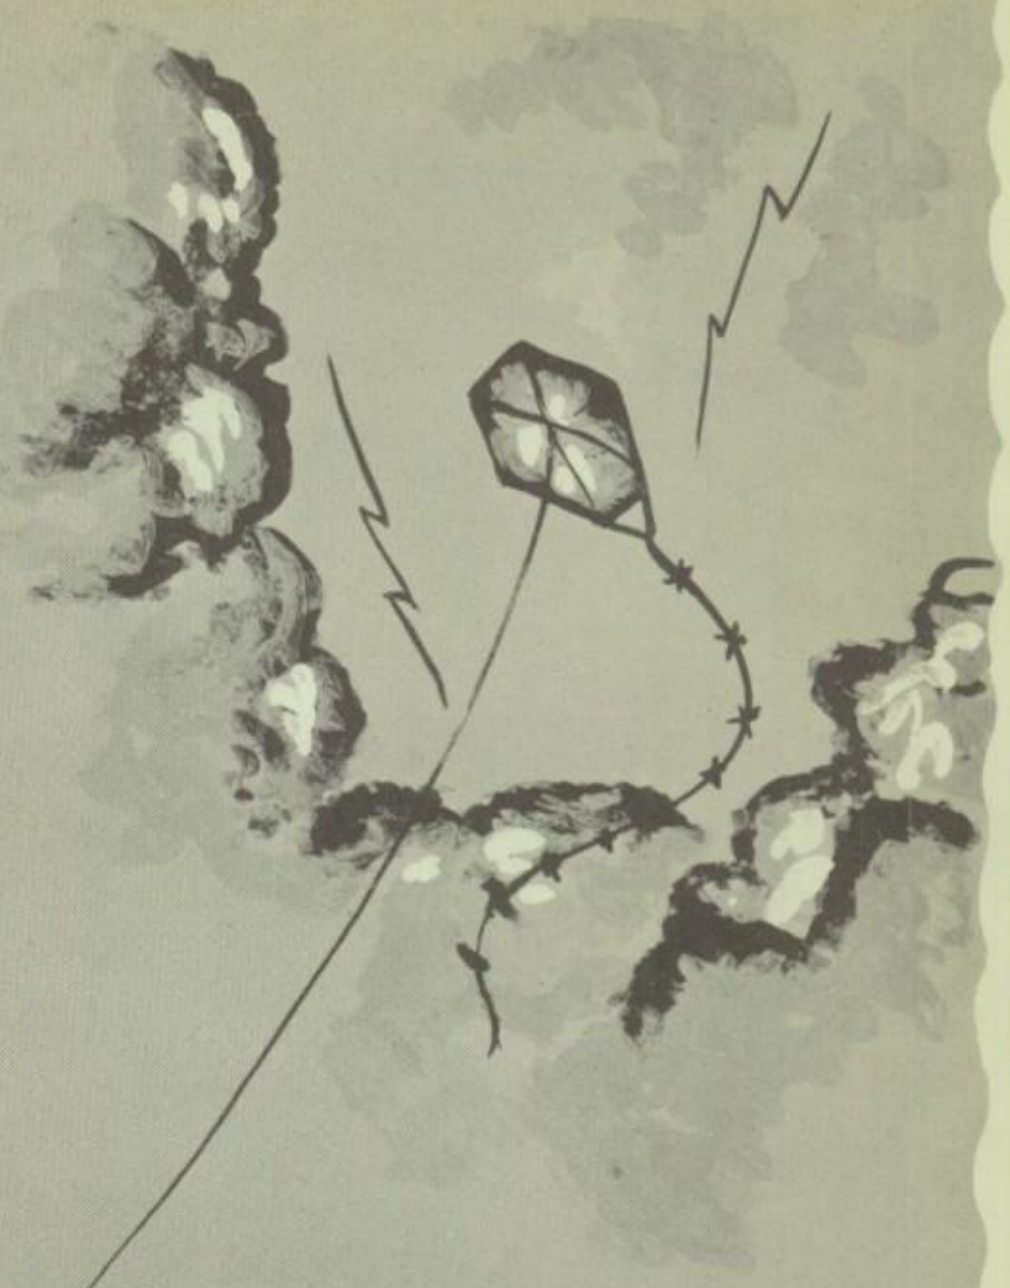
Mr. Sabin has been a participant and a leader in many local and national educational organizations. Since 1947, when he became our principal, he has devoted nearly all of his time and energy and has given the benefit of his knowledge and experience to Franklin High School.

Foreword

". . . the next thing most like living one's life over again seems to be a recollection of that life, and to make that recollection as durable as possible by putting it down in writing."

As BENJAMIN FRANKLIN wrote these words in the opening pages of his AUTOBIOGRAPHY, his long life of service to mankind was drawing to a close. He had determined to set down for posterity a brief record of the main events in his life.

As we the CLASS OF 1952 write these words in the foreword of our KEY, our brief stay at Franklin High is fast drawing to a close. We have determined to set down for future generations of Franklinites a record of the deeds and activities of our graduating class.



In June, 1752, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN attached a metal key to a kitestring during a thunderstorm and proved that lightning is an electrical discharge. This experiment was repeated by famous European scientists before the royalty of the Old World and brought Franklin's many and varied scientific researches to the attention of Europe's learned.

We have chosen BENJAMIN FRANKLIN'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY, the theme of our KEY, to express the parallel between Franklin's life and times and our own on this the two hundredth anniversary of the famous experiment from which our yearbook takes its name.

Last Will and Testament

CLASS OF 1952

We, the Senior class of 1952, future taxpayers of Benjamin Franklin High School, the finest and the highest institution of learning this side of South Avenue, being of hollow head and shallow body, under the auspices authorized to vest with us the power of disposing of our prides and glories as we so desire, and appealing to the sagacity of the top brass for the rectitude of our intentions, do hereby decree this document to be our last will and testament.

After much consideration regarding the disposal of our fortunes, we, the Seniors, shall apportion our common estate thus:

To Mr. Sabin, whose generosity, wisdom, and friendliness have aided us in fulfilling our five perilous years, we leave the satisfaction of being his first completely graduated class and the sincerest grati tude of the entire Senior class. "Need we say more?"

To Mr. Francis we would like to leave a new public address system, but since we cannot, we bequeath unto him something just as dear to his heart—a pamphlet entitled "Making the Best of a Military Career."

To Mr. Maurer and Miss Rizzo, our very patient class advisers, we leave a sentimental feeling, a backache, and the satisfaction of a job finally done.

To Mr. Stalker we leave a year's supply of doughnuts and coffee and a hostess apron for his "Breakfast Club."

To Mr. Smith we leave—and he must be glad we're going.

To Miss Coulton we leave another book entitled, "Job Placements for Unemployed Franklinites" by John L. Lewis.

To Miss Martens we leave a complete English translation of Caesar's Gallic campaigns along with a free pass to see "Quo Vadis."

To Miss Levin we leave a ball and chain for her record book and her paper-weight, a twelve by sixteen full color portrait of her redeemer, George Neubert, and also a portrait of Sandy Shapiro's scalp.

To Mr. Iman we leave a mechanical brain to solve his economic exams and to replace Seymour Becker.

To Miss Hess we leave thirty bed sheets to be used as togas for the Latin Honor Society.

To Mr. Kaplan we leave one slightly used siren, the shrunken head of Don Tettlebach, a book entitled, "Qualitative Analysis of an Aspirin Tablet" by Art Inguaggiato, and also a copy of Eugene Cimino's farewell address.

To Mr. Quinn we bequeath a trophy inscribed "To Franklin's champion billiard player."

To Mr. Lipson, Mr. Rahtjen, Mr. Chamberlain, and Mr. Clark we leave a year's supply of mustache wax.

To Mr. Taylor we leave a secret manual containing the trigonometry exams for the next five years and a sworn statement by Mrs. Morsheimer not to be taken ill again.

To Mr. Hosic we leave a box of "Tintair."

To Miss Sullivan we leave a contract requiring her to perform in all of the Franklin Day plays and also an award acclaiming her "Belle of the English Department."

To Mr. Remington we leave next year's "hams" to act in the Senior Play and also a book entitled "There's No Business Like Show Business" by Eddie Cantor.

To Miss Callahan we leave a bottle of a very rare gas having a density of five times that of a molecule of helium, a characteristic color of the rainbow, and an insoluble precipitate known as cement.

To Mr. Betten we leave a share of the Canadian uranium mines and a set of picks and shovels to be used by a brigade of lunchroom custodians.

To Mr. O'Brien we leave a season's pass to "the theatre."

To our beloved, one and only Luigi, we leave a new broom with pork hair bristles, and an outboard motor, and an automatic tripper.

To next year's Senior class we leave the Senior Council, the Senior Play, the Senior Ball, the Senior Banquet, the remains of the decorations from the last Senior dance, and a slew of miscellaneous headaches.

To the Sophomore class we leave three hundred fifty-one pairs of dirty dungarees to be used for next year's Junior Day.

To the Freshmen we leave the privilege of becoming Sophomores—wise fools.

To the eighth-graders we leave next year's incoming sub-freshmen, and the relief of being superior to someone at last.

To the entire student body as a whole, we leave a carload of 2 x 4's and some cement to strengthen the ceiling of the auditorium and also the corner stone of Franklin High School—"Ando."

Last, but far from the least, we bequeath unto all of the Senior homeroom teachers a dozen safety pins, a subscription to diaper service, and five million cuddly, little eighth-graders.

Duly witnessed and signed this twenty-sixth day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1952, by the Senior class of Benjamin Franklin High School. The terms of this document are to be administered by Leone, Saperstone, and Passar, Incorporated—Attorneys at Law.

Prophecy of The Class of 1952

And now the class of '52
Presents its prophecy to you.
We hope our fortune-telling brings
Success, good luck, and other things.

Gene Cimino as president we see,
With blushing Cora on his knee.
Audrey Geist has married well,
And Broadway is featuring Lee Mandell.

The charming voice of our own Fran
Will soon be singing to little Dan.
Bernie Comisar will come into view
As the top announcer of '62.

Joan Kessler's model for Harper's Bazaar.
Goldie has just wrecked her father's new car.
On Wall Street Bruce Bloom will reign as king,
While Louie has just given Shirley a ring.

Lennie Shulman is drinking tea
And swimming the channel it's Paul we see.
Olga is leading our biggest parades
As Betty teaches Ec to all the twelfth grades.

Elaine and Helene are teaching the brats
As Gustav Sondelius is chasing the rats.
Ann Martyniak is typing with skill,
And managing the Sheraton is our little Bill.

Jim Marshall was signed by the Notre Dame team
While Rita's cooking is still on the beam.
Kandi's still chasing the men with a gun,
And Dusty's at Willowpoint still having fun.

Marv Gettner's building bridges that won't fall apart,
While Sam Pipitone has gained fame with his art.
Noel Abronowitz is still fishing for herring
And head nurse at the General is our Sandy Gerring.

Don Tettelbach's rambling home from Tech,
In the Coast Guard, Kingsland's swabbing the deck.
Sue Markus is singing "Anchors Aweigh",
Walt and Nancy were married last May.

On the beach Dotti Tejw is causing a riot,
She's one girl who doesn't need to go on a diet.
Gladys Levy is playing in Carnegie Hall,
Chuck and Jim Rogers play "PRO" basketball.

Don Prevost is now a star on T-V,
As the first womn president, it's Irene we see.
Ross Elkin's handball is his claim to fame,
If you need a good doctor, Chuck Leone is the name.
Chuck Keys and Paul Welton will never be free
As long as girls are able to see.
Levinson is now the famous bridge champ.
Audrey Pierson is running a boys' summer camp.

On the wrestling mats we see,
Joe Mateer as the new Hy Lee.
Sunny Passar is dean of a college,
While Si has just published his first book of knowledge.

Ronnie Peterson will be the new tennis champ.
Joe Fina will still be marching in camp.
The sailors on the ships will rave,
When Nancy Azzano becomes a wave.

Billy Shelp has just one aim in life,
And that is to make Joannie his wife.
The Cleveland Browns will have their pick
Of Marty, Don, and little Nick.

Paula's a star of the stage and she's great,
Jerry Silveri has become a Phi Bete.
In Hollywood Balkin is working the lights,
While Tony is busy observing the sights.

Alan Jacobs, George Neubert are ministers able,
And Phil Mordenga's competing with Gable.
They soon will be calling Mattie Belle "doc",
And there's Ronnie Bishop with his tuba in hock.

Nancy and Iona are nurses in white.
Marv Tillman has finally reached his full height.
As the great lover, Gary Cohn is known.
In the greatest art galleries, Marlene's work is shown.

Ihor Stelnyck is the new soccer rage.
Margie Salerno has replaced Pattie Page.
Bill Corning's a farmer rotating his crops.
Gloria DiMaggio in pictures is tops.

Joan Farrant has finally learned how to cook,
And Irv has just published a new Physics book.
Vic Baldo, we see, is making cigars,
While Duckman is off on a rocket to Mars.

Tieke will be Mr. Stalker's successor.
Johnny Romano is a college professor.
The newest band is led by Vic Plati,
While Uncle Sam's army has claimed Carlivati.

Annie and Danny have just settled down.
Marcia Hathorn's three husbands are the talk of the town.
The wrestling king is Don Marrapese
While Jeannie Agnello makes cheering look easy.

Chuck Swift is running the hundred-yard dash.
Art Inguaggiato is out slinging hash.
Gordy Gutzmer is remodeling cars,
While Honest John owns a string of bars.

Jerry Calderon is an engineer
And Dick Tambe's manufacturing beer.
Marilyn Kerber is the queen of girls' sports.
Jimmy Marshall and Uncle Sam are now cohorts.

Sylvia's designing new Parisian creations.
Margie, in Hawaii is causing sensations.
Jimmy, Bart, and Karl are busy selling drugs,
While farmer Marvin Becker is busy chasing bugs.
Audrey Neerbasch will be the first woman preacher.
Mimi Armon will be the boys' new gym teacher.

Now that this prophecy's come to a close,
We realize we should have written in prose.
But the very best that we could do,
Is what we've just presented to you.
